

'Ula Noweo (Bright Red Glow)

This nature chant was written for Kamoha'i, a Kaua'i chief. The composer intends to create mental images to stir our hearts, that we may experience the sights, sounds and smells of Hanalei, Kaua'i.

Chant type: Mele Kuo (praise)
Chant style: 'Ai Ha'a (vigorous)
Hula type: Hula 'Olapa (standing, moving)

'Ula noweo la , la e ka lae la
Ka pua 'ilima lae

The bright red glow of the sun
Opens the 'ilima blossom

A ka lae, a'o Nohili la
Ka huwai lana la, o ka awapuhi
lae

At the point of Nohili
The stream overflows among the ginger

Ua 'ike wale 'oe la
I ka ua loku la, a'o Hanalei lae

You have seen
The heavy rain at Hanalei

Ua lipolipo wale la
A'o kanahale la, a'o Ho'ohie lae

The deep dense underbrush
Of the forest of Ho'ohie

Ha'ina mai ka puana la
La he inoa la, no Kamoha'i lae

Tell the refrain
In honor of Kamoha'i

HE INOA NO KAMOHA'I

In the Name of Kamoha'i
